

Amy Purdy: Keynote Topic

Amy is highly experienced and requested professional speaker. Amy's TED talk was chosen by the TED organization out of hundreds to be featured on the homepage of TED.com catapulting her speaking career into the national and international corporate speaking world. Currently her TED talk is distributed to new, incoming TED speakers as the #1 recommended sample presentation. It has been viewed millions of times and translated into multiple languages.

Since Amy's TED Talk she has gone on to live an inspired and accomplished life pulling lessons along the way and sharing them with the world. In 2015 Amy toured with Oprah Winfrey across the country speaking to stadiums of 15,000 people plus during the Toyota sponsored "Life You Want" tour. Amy is an in-demand speaker for Fortune 500 companies, organizations, special events, corporate retreats and more.

On My Own Two Feet: From Losing My Legs to Learning the Dance of Life

Amy Purdy encourages us to take control of our lives, and our limits. The world fell in love with Purdy as the incredible girl with bionic legs who managed to out-dance her competitors all the way to the season 18 finale of Dancing with the Stars. She reveals the powerful, moving story of her personal spiritual awakening as a result of a sudden and often fatal blood infection that caused her to lose both of her legs. Despite her grim prognosis, she was determined to not just beat the odds and walk again but to create a life filled with bold adventures, big dreams, and boundless vitality—and share that spirit with the world. Purdy seized her second chance at life and earned a bronze medal in adaptive snowboarding at the 2014 Paralympic Games. Her story is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and the capacity we all have to defy expectations and rewrite our own stories.