

Vishen Lakhiani – Speaking Topics

Vishen speaks to elevate and unite humanity; with a focus on personal transformation and company culture. Audiences describe his talks as powerful, thought-provoking, and funny and theatrical (He's a trained stage actor).

The sample below are a few select speeches from Vishen's career that show his range of style and topic. Each talk is customized to each audience. No two speeches are ever the same.

Transforming Work Culture

Vishen brings in the science and studies on how to lead organizations in a radically different way where work becomes a healing force and humans get to function at their best. Ideal for founders and CEOs. Vishen's new book by Penguin Random House, "The Code of the Extraordinary Team" will be on this topic. He covers the story of Mindvalley and goes behind the scenes of the unique culture he created that now has attracted people from 54 nations to move to Malaysia to work for this company.

The 6 Phase Meditation

This speech at Google HQ Dublin became the most watched speech on the Wisdom 2.0 conference Youtube page. It combines science, humor and meditation. It's been watched over a million times on Youtube. This talk can be done in 30 mins but there is also a 7 hour version that goes deep in teaching the audience how to master advanced meditation.

The Four Levels of Consciousness

This speech was the highest rated speech in 7 years of A-Fest. It's less theatrical, more academic and covers some of the key topics from "The Code of the Extraordinary Mind". You'll learn how humans can directly accelerate their conscious development and how to become closer to unity consciousness.

Topic: Goals and Dreaming Big

This is an example of comedy mixed with transformation as Vishen tells his origin story. This talk is more motivational. It leads to the popular 3 Most Important Questions exercise which is being used by millions around the world. The audience ends up with a single sheet of paper representing their boldest dreams and hopes for their life.

Futurism and State of the World

This is a speech that shows where humanity is heading based on predictions by 5 leading philosophers. This particular talk ties together ideas to show how humanity needs to evolve and where our politics, religion and business need to evolve to get us to the next stage of planet earth.

3 Ways to Become Unfuckwithable

This speech is part biohacking and part spiritual awakening. It's approaching one million views on Youtube, and has been sliced up by many third-party motivational channels like Absolute Motivation. Vishen talks about forgiveness, self-love and being in the now as tools to enhance the human experience and make us more resistant to the ups and downs of life.

Sample Closing Style: Uniting the audience in dance and joy

This is a speech that shows where humanity is heading based on predictions by 5 leading philosophers. This particular talk ties together ideas to show how humanity needs to evolve and where our politics, religion and business need to evolve to get us to the next stage of planer earth.

Sample Style - Vishen as a Panelist

Vishen was the first guest to ever appear twice on Tom Bilyeu's Impact Theory. This video from MotivationHub shows some of the highlights of that interview.