

Jamie Clarke – Introduction

The rare combination of internationally acclaimed adventurer, explorer and business leader, Jamie Clarke is one of a handful of people in the world who have climbed the Seven Summits and forged a successful business career—first by launching an outdoor equipment brand known as Live Out There, which became a fast-growing e-commerce start-up, and then with his own consulting and coaching business. Currently, Jamie is a highly sought-after performance coach who has worked with Olympians, the NFL, Hockey Canada and the 2018 Stanley Cup-winning Washington Capitals, and he is an assistant professor at the University of Calgary’s Haskayne Business school where he teaches and mentors in the Centre for Advanced Leadership.
